NOTICE TWO MEETING SEE BELOW

First Meeting Conference Call Monday March 12th

Hey everyone!

Although it may seem a small thing on its face, our bi-annual township directory is essentially the face of our organization in our absence, a useful tool, and a statement by those who purchase ads that they support the cause and recognize the benefit of Lorain County township government.

Keeping with tradition, as the LCTA's VP I've been charged with the coordination of the book. There are a number of decisions that need to be made, the number of books to print, the size of the book, the binding type, the sizes and cost of the ads, and content. I could make these decisions on my own, but we're talking an investment of our sponsors' money and income to our organization into the 10's of thousands. Your name will be in this book and these businesses respect you. If your spouse were going to go out and spend dollars in the triple digits and potentially put your reputation on the line, would you want a say?

Call it a committee meeting or a discussion between interested parties, people's biggest concern over putting their name in the ring is time. To address this, I've scheduled a conference call next Monday March 12, at 7:00 pm where these topics will be discussed. I, honestly don't expect the discussion to last more than half an hour and it will provide me some direction as to what shape you want your directory to take. The number to call will be (218) 936-7950 and the entry code is 343017. No travel time. A short discussion. Your opportunity to be heard and to make an impact. How good is that? Hope to speak with you then.

Thanks,

Orrin Leimbach,

VP, Lorain County Township Association
